

Project Description	Fiscal Ye	Congressional District	Grant Amount	Grant From Date	Grant To Date
To support the Kinser Jazz Festival. The annual festival will provide educational and performance opportunities for elementary through college-age students from throughout the state of Wyoming.	2020	1	$10,000	1/1/2020	2/29/2020
To support GLOW, a series of temporary public art installations and multidisciplinary presentations. Artists will be commissioned to create light-based public art works inspired by the natural phenomena of the Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem, including geysers, hot springs, calderas, mountains, and microbes. The commissioned works will be installed at sites throughout Jackson Hole. Additionally, high school students will have the opportunity to develop and build an installation with a professional artist. Local organizations and artists will create related dance, music, poetry, media, and visual arts elements as part of the installations.	2019	1	$25,000	1/1/2019	12/31/2020
In recognition of your artistic excellence and significant contributions to our nation's traditional arts heritage.	2019	1	$25,000	4/1/2019	12/31/2020
To support guest artist fees for an outdoor production of Shakespeare's Richard III, and related educational activities. Professional guest directors Edgar Landa and Drew Vidal, a guest set designer, and guest actors will work alongside local actors to present a live theatrical experience in rural Jackson, Wyoming. Associated artist residencies will include in-school workshops conducted by the production's director	2020	1	$10,000	1/1/2020	12/31/2021
To support personnel and facilities costs in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.	2020	1	$50,000	7/1/2020	12/31/2021
To support artist fees related to an outdoor production of As You Like It. A professional guest director, guest set designer, and guest actors will work alongside local professionals to provide a high-quality theatrical experience in rural Jackson, Wyoming. The guest artists will participate in a multi-week artist residency that will result in the production of several performances, as well as related lectures for audiences.	2019	1	$10,000	1/1/2019	12/31/2019
To support personnel and facilities costs in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.	2020	1	$50,000	8/1/2020	5/31/2021
To support an artist residency by jazz musicians Jackie Allen and Hans Sturm, with related community engagement activities. The residency will include lecture demonstrations, workshops for local high school students, and pre-concert discussion. The guest artists and the orchestra's conductor will present joint programs such as clinics in jazz, ensemble performances, and improvisation demonstrations for students at local high schools. The residency will conclude with a dress rehearsal and public performance by Allen and Sturm with the Powder River Symphony.	2019	1	$10,000	1/1/2019	5/31/2019
To support the Casper Mountain Music Festival and related educational programming. Guest brass musician Bruce Barrie will perform as both a soloist and with members of Trinkle Brass Works during the festival. Barrie will also lead a musician mentorship program for high school and college music students. Throughout the festival, students will have the opportunity to perform with their mentor musicians.	2020	1	$10,000	2/1/2020	5/31/2021
To support personnel and facilities costs in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.	2020	1	$50,000	12/1/2020	6/30/2022
To support residencies for writers and visual artists with an emphasis on Latinx artists. Participating artists will receive stipends, living accommodations, and studio space on Ucross's 20,000-acre ranch in the High Plains of northern Wyoming. They will have the opportunity to share their work and participate in public programs, such as workshops, panel discussions, open studio events, and readings.	2021	1	$11,000	1/1/2021	12/31/2021
To support residencies for Native American visual artists and writers. Artists will receive stipends, living accommodations, and studio space on Ucross's 20,000-acre ranch in the High Plains of northern Wyoming. They will have the opportunity to share their work and participate in public programs, such as workshops, panel discussions, open studio events, and readings.	2020	1	$30,000	1/1/2020	12/31/2020
To support arts programs, services, and activities associated with carrying out the agency's National Endowment for the Arts-approved strategic plan.	2020	1	$752,500	7/1/2020	12/31/2021

To support arts programs, services, and activities associated with carrying out the agency's National Endowment for the Arts-approved strategic plan, as well as salaries, administration costs, and related subgranting to the nonprofit arts sector in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

2019	1	$1,133,200	7/1/2019	12/31/2022
TOTAL:		$2,176,700		