

Project Description	Fiscal Ye	Congressional District	Grant Amount	Grant From Date	Grant To Date
To support personnel and facilities costs in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.	2020	1	$50,000	7/1/2020	6/30/2021
To support chamber concerts in celebration of the Women's Suffrage Centennial with related educational activities. Repertoire may include composer Joan Tower's Fanfare for the Uncommon Woman and Made in America, and Ellen Taaffe Zwilich's American Concerto. Virtual educational activities may include a youth concert and panel discussions. This project honors the Women's Suffrage Centennial.	2020	1	$15,000	7/1/2020	1/31/2021
To support an artist residency for a visual or performing artist and associated engagement activities. The selected artist will engage the local community while living and working in Las Vegas. During the residency, the artist will provide workshops, a public presentation, and an exhibition. The artist will be provided with accommodations, transportation, living expenses, and a visual documentation of the residency.	2019	1	$10,000	1/1/2019	10/31/2019
To support the publication and promotion of graphic narratives and poetry in The Believer magazine. Providing a home for work that defies easy classification, The Believer will continue to bolster its graphic narrative/comics and poetry sections.	2021	1	$15,000	1/1/2021	12/31/2021
To support the publication and promotion of graphic narratives and poetry in The Believer magazine. Providing a home for work that defies easy classification, The Believer recently expanded its graphic narrative and comics section, devoting significant space to this increasingly influential literary form.	2020	1	$10,000	1/1/2020	12/31/2020
To support the publication of graphic narratives and poetry in The Believer magazine. Providing a home for work that defies easy classification, The Believer plans to expand its graphic narrative and comics section, devoting significant space in its pages and online to this increasingly influential literary form. Issues will be promoted through social media and other means.	2019	1	$10,000	1/1/2019	12/31/2019
To support the Artown festival. The free, virtual, multidisciplinary arts festival will present performances by music, dance, and theater artists, as well as film screenings. Related engagement activities will include arts activities for children and seniors and workshops.	2020	2	$25,000	1/1/2020	8/31/2020
To support the Artown festival. The free multidisciplinary arts festival will present performances by music, dance, and theater artists, as well as film screenings at sites throughout Reno. Related engagement activities will include arts activities for children and seniors, workshops, and art walks.	2019	2	$10,000	1/1/2019	8/31/2019
To support an exhibition of mixed-media work by visual artist Justin Favela, with related outreach including artist talks and a commissioned essay by writer Emmanuel Ortega. Favela's exhibition will feature his signature "piñata style" work incorporating traditional craft materials such as tissue paper and cardboard into large-scale murals and sculptures. Pieces will explore depictions of Latin American culture in popular contemporary animated films. The exhibition will be installed at the Courthouse Gallery, located in rural Carson City where nearly one-third of residents are Spanish-speaking.	2019	2	$10,000	7/1/2019	3/31/2020
To support a series of concert performances featuring the musical traditions of Central and South America. Selected guest artist musicians will perform with the Carson City Symphony in a program intended to engage Carson City's growing Latino population.	2020	2	$10,000	1/1/2020	12/31/2021
To support a series of music performances and associated outreach activities in rural Nevada. The performances will feature a variety of musical styles and outreach will include activities such as lecture-demonstrations and workshops. The diverse performances are intended to celebrate America's creativity and cultural heritage.	2020	2	$15,000	6/1/2020	12/31/2021
To support a series of music performances and associated outreach activities. Performances will feature musical styles from a variety of countries and cultures, and outreach will include activities such as lecture-demonstrations. The proposed series will bring diverse musical genres to the rural community of Fallon in northern Nevada.	2019	2	$35,000	6/1/2019	12/31/2020
To support the commission and installation of public art along the Truckee River in downtown Reno. An artist will be chosen through a competitive selection process to create artwork such as murals and artist-designed lighting elements. Pieces will be installed at bridge sites passing over a riverside pedestrian and bike path.	2021	2	$15,000	1/1/2021	12/31/2022

To support the Art Belongs Here grant program, offering grant funds for temporary public artworks. The initiative is intended to expand arts programming beyond downtown Reno, with support for inclusive neighborhood-based public art projects such as murals, bike racks, benches, and sculpture.	2020	2	$20,000	6/1/2020	12/31/2021
To support administration costs and related subgranting to the nonprofit arts sector in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.	2020	2	$250,000	7/1/2020	6/30/2021
To support the commission and installation of a public artwork in the Midtown cultural district. The project will be carried out in partnership with the Regional Transportation Commission (RTC) of Washoe County, Nevada, and is related to an ongoing RTC transit improvement project. The inclusion of public art in the RTC project was a response to community feedback, and the artwork selection process will include additional opportunities for public input. A series of public outreach sessions will address issues such as community visioning, gentrification, accessibility, and community identity. These public conversations will inform the call for artists and the artwork selection process.	2019	2	$30,000	1/1/2019	12/31/2020
To support artist-led community design workshops and the creation of public art celebrating the 4th Street District in Reno. The project builds upon extensive planning efforts to strengthen the connection between Reno's commercial corridor and surrounding neighborhoods.	2019	2	$100,000	8/1/2019	8/31/2021
To support arts programs, services, and activities associated with carrying out the agency's National Endowment for the Arts-approved strategic plan.	2020	2	$716,269	7/1/2020	8/31/2021
To support arts programs, services, and activities associated with carrying out the agency's National Endowment for the Arts-approved strategic plan, as well as salaries, administration costs, and related subgranting to the nonprofit arts sector in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.	2019	2	$1,152,700	7/1/2019	8/31/2022
To support the project director and a commission for visual artist Jack Malotte to implement an exhibition and outreach activities. Malotte will create a new series of large-format drawings based on Native American oral histories, which will be included in the exhibition. The exhibition will also contain works from the artist, collectors, and other institutions. Outreach will include a co-presentation by the Reno-Sparks Indian Colony celebrating of Native American art, culture, community, and tradition at a free public event. The event will include basket weaving, demonstrations, gallery talks, and storytelling.	2019	2	$10,000	1/1/2019	6/30/2019
To support performances of the Peanutcraacker, an adaptation of the Nutcracker for a young audience. Guest dancers Terrin Kelly and Carson Ford will perform leading roles alongside other dancers of the Sierra Nevada Ballet in both public performances and in-school performances. Elementary school teachers will receive an educational packet to prepare students for their experience at the ballet. The guest artists will visit classrooms and engage students before the performance, and will participate in a meet-and-greet after each performance.	2019	2	$10,000	9/1/2019	12/31/2019
In recognition of your artistic excellence and significant contributions to our nation's traditional arts heritage.	2020	3	$25,000	4/1/2020	12/31/2021
To support a professional artistic development program and the presentation of guest artists. Plans include providing students with professional coaching, mentorship, and collaborative performance opportunities with local and visiting professional artists.	2020	3	$15,000	7/1/2020	5/31/2021
To support personnel costs in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.	2020	3	$50,000	7/1/2020	12/31/2021
To support the expansion of the Las Vegas Young Artists Orchestra programs and the presentation of guest artists. The tuition-free youth music program will develop a new percussion ensemble and a new chamber orchestra program. In addition, guest artists in the classical, jazz, and world music fields will perform alongside students as soloists and collaborators.	2019	3	$15,000	7/1/2019	5/31/2020
To support performances of works by living composers and librettists. The Living Composers Series will feature fully staged productions of works including Derrick Wang's Scalia/Ginsburg and Evan Mack and Joshua McGuire's The Ghosts of Gatsby.	2020	3	$10,000	10/1/2020	10/31/2021
To support activities that contribute to your creative development and artistic growth and may include writing, research, and travel	2020	3	$25,000	1/1/2020	12/31/2020

To support the commission of a new work by choreographer Trey McIntyre. The engagement will include several weeks of collaboration, education, and creation with the professional company, artistic, and production staff. Elements of the work's creation will be preserved digitally for posterity and possible use as streaming or virtual content in a performing arts environment impacted by COVID 19.

2020

4

$15,000

7/1/2020

6/30/2021

To support personnel costs in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

2020

4

$50,000

10/1/2020

12/31/2020

To support the production of a new ballet work by company artist Krista Baker and related outreach programming. Prior to performances, NBT will present an educational discussion to explore Baker's new work. In addition, the work will be part of a free matinee for underserved elementary school students in Clark County. The students will receive a study guide before the show that will focus on dance and choreography, as well as theater etiquette.

2019

4

$10,000

7/1/2019

6/30/2020

TOTAL:

$2,733,969